Our History

Sanjay Gandhi Mahila Inter College, Gaya (Affiliated to Bihar School Education Board, Patna) was humbly started in the year 1980 by a few philanthropic and dedicated people of Gaya. The college was inaugurated by DR Parshu Ram Mishra & Late DR Renuka Kumari with initial Intermediate Arts, Science and Commerce teaching. The college has, presently, more than two thousand students on roll, imparting education in all the three faculties (Science, Arts and Commerce) to the students belonging to economically and socially backward communities of Bihar.

Sanjay Gandhi Mahila Inter College is not only committed to creation, preservation, communication an application of knowledge as well as excellence in teaching and scholarly activities but also create responsible citizens of India. Its mission is to serve and lift up the economically, socially and educationally backward section of the society. The aim of the college is to impart quality teaching in facilities of Science, Arts and Commerce

Founder's Message

We at Sanjay Gandhi Mahila Inter College of Education believe that for an educational institution, the main objective lives with grooming the students for future, not merely in certain skills but also as a good human being. Our vision is to build up world-class professionals carrying a firm value system. We are proud to provide quality education to students for developing holistic competence and handle exigent corporate situations in the current globalised world. Students who are interested in pursuing higher education will discover an achiever within themselves after completing their course from SGMIC. We commit ourselves to instill our precious students with best of Indian traditions and culture. Along with imparting education, we would provide the best of infrastructure as well as academics facilities. By adding-on classroom lessons on management practice and theory along with the industry exposure, SGMIC endeavors to prepare future professionals in a way that they become great assets for an organization they work in. Best Wishes and Welcome to Sanjay Gandhi Mahila Inter College Best Wishes and Welcome to SGMIC of Education. Dr. Parshuram Mishra
